

Dear participants,

We received several questions regarding transport access and travel guidance to Jember, East Java, Indonesia. You can reach Jember both by air and by road. Below is a travel guide to reach Jember.

Airplane

1. There are two direct flights from Surabaya (Juanda International Airport) to Jember (Notohadinegoro Airport); one is operated by Garuda Indonesia leaving from Surabaya to Jember at 08.50am and another flight operated by Wings Air leaving from Surabaya to Jember at 11.25am.
2. Garuda Indonesia leaves Jember to Surabaya at 10.20am while Wings Air leaves Jember to Surabaya at 11.25am.

Please bear in mind that there are two terminals in Juanda Airport Surabaya. Terminal 2 is for international flights including Garuda Indonesia (international and domestic) while terminal 1 is for domestic flights (all Indonesian based airlines excluding Garuda Indonesia such as Wings Air, Citilink, Sriwijaya Air, Lion Air, and Batik Air).

Road (Train and Bus)

1. Train from Surabaya to Jember usually takes 4 hours while bus may take a bit longer.

Alternative

There is also an alternative way to reach Jember especially for those who arrive from international flights. If you arrive at Jakarta International Airport (JIA – Soekarno Hatta) and intend to take a flight without transit, you can choose a direct flight from JIA – Soekarno Hatta to Banyuwangi Airport (Blimbingsari) then hire a private car to Jember which needs for about 3 hours and costs for about USD 25 dollar. You do not need to transit in Surabaya Juanda International Airport.

Jember is a small district in East Java, situated in the midst of two volcanos; Semeru and Ijen. Lies for about 80 meters above sea level, Jember is also well known as one of the largest producers of tobacco and coffee in Indonesia. For coffee lover, while Arabica and Robusta are easy to find in any coffee shop, you also can try Civet Coffee, the recent most expensive coffee in the world, that can become your everlasting visit reminder in Jember. You can find some shops to buy coffee and cigar as a souvenir in around Jember city. Jember also has its own Batik (hand painting and factory painting) which you can find in several souvenir shops in around Jember.
